PROFILE

Although initially the objective was to pursue a career in medical massage, the discovery of Thai Massage created the impetus for the development of a private practice.

EXPERIENCE

Owner, ThaiMassage-NYC, New York, NY 2008-present

Rendering Traditional Thai Massage treatments to customers in a massage studio and in customer's homes. Over the years this has grown to become my sole source of income.

Massage Therapist, New York Health and Racquet Club 2008-2014

Initially it was all table massage practice, such as Swedish-Deep Tissue. As I continued to practice the lessons from the trips to Thailand the sessions on the massage table became more infused with Therapeutic ThaiMassage techniques such as stretching, compressions, twisting and rocking. Eventually I was able to give up the shift-work but I continued to put in regular hours each month rendering Thai Infused chair massage during membership drives in a corporate health fair setting.

Massage Therapist, ReMass, Brooklyn, New York 2008-2010

Swedish Massage. Some medical massage practice but mostly Spa Massage for special events.

Massage Therapist, Chill Spa 2008-2009

Rendering Spa Massage treatments

Massage Therapist, East Village Chiropractic 2008-2009

Rendering therapeutic massage in conjunction with chiropractic treatment.

EDUCATION

Swedish Institute College of Health Sciences, New York, NY 2007-2008 ~ Associates Degree in Occupational Science

Old Medicine Hospital, Chiang Mai, Thailand 2008 ~ Thai Massage Certification

ITM, Chiang Mai, Thailand 2010 ~ Thai Massage Teacher Certification

Thai Institute, Arlington VA, 2011, 2012, 2013 ~ Thai Massage Symposium. Annual Wai Khru

SKILLS

I like to interact with people and I speak well. The learning environment is one that I have oft considered sacred and tend to gravitate toward teacher mode regardless of the job description. I have a high regard for the Thai Way and find that there are endless possibilities within the context of Thai Massage.
